

The Town of East Hartford, CT Invites Qualified Candidates to Apply for Director of Health & Social Services

About the Town of East Hartford

The part of the land known as East Hartford was once inhabited by the Podunk Indians, in 1635 the town saw its first permanent colonists when Thomas Hooker and his followers came from Cambridge, Massachusetts to found Hartford. The east side of the Connecticut River was at that time part of Hartford. Initially settled about 1640, early settlers included William Goodwin, Thomas Burnham and William Pitkin.

The first petition by residents to establish a separate Town apart from Hartford was rejected by the General Assembly in 1726. Several more petitions were submitted between that year and 1783, when the Assembly at last gave its approval to the incorporation of East Hartford. The Town then received its Charter from the State of Connecticut on the land area taken from the City of Hartford.

The Town of East Hartford had a population of 49,575 in 2000 and 50,974 in 2010 with an anticipated population of 53,000 in 2020. East Hartford is considered one of the larger municipalities in Connecticut other than the big cities since most Towns are an average of 25,000-30,000 population. The Town is 18 square miles with 2,840 population/square mile. It has the density population similar to cities but has over 600 acres of parks which includes parks and open space along the Connecticut River.

The Town of East Hartford has a very diverse population including: 72 nationalities, 23% Black/African American, 23% Hispanic, 12% multi-race and 8% Asian Pacific. The Town boast the availability of affordable housing compared to the neighboring communities.

Three of the largest employers in East Hartford are United Technologies Corp (also known as Pratt & Whitney which was recently expanded) Goodwin University which provides undergraduate and graduate degrees along with many practical certification programs and Connecticut Light & Power (Electricity Company)

East Hartford has easy access to major highways, located next to the State Capitol and many entertainment centers with easy access to Airport, New York City, Boston, Connecticut River, Ocean, and Mountains.

Form of Government

Today, the Town of East Hartford is governed by a strong Mayor form of government. The Charter empowers the Mayor to govern the Town in cooperation with an elected nine-member Town Council and Town Treasurer. The Chairman of the Town Council is also the Deputy Mayor. The Mayor is the Chief Executive and Chief Elected Officer who appoints all department heads and prepares the budget for the Council to approve.

The current Mayor has been in office since 2011. The Mayor will appoint the new Director of Health & Social Services to replace the current Director of 12 years who is retiring after 40 years with East Hartford

The Town Council is the legislative branch of local government. The Town Council approves the Town budget and adopts it into law as a Town Ordinance. The Town Council maintains and updates the Code of Ordinances and is responsible for engaging a licensed CPA firm to perform the annual single audit.
